Shri K.A.Ansari, counsel for the Petitioner.

Heard.

The petitioner has filed this petition under Article 226 of the Constitution of India against the order dated 8-4-2003 passed by the respondents whereby he has been transferred from Korba to Narayanpur.

Learned counsel for the petitioner contended that the petitioner has also made a representation but the same has not been decided.

Having considered the facts and circumstances of the case and material on record, in the opinion of this Court, ends of justice will serve if a direction is given to the petitioner to make a detailed representation along with a copy of this petition as well as copy of this order to the competent authority within fifteen days from today and on such representation being filed, the competent authority shall decide the same by passing a reasoned order in accordance with law within two months from the date of production of representation. If any adverse order is passed and the petitioner thereby feels aggrieved, he may file the petition afresh challenging the said order. It is made clear that this Court has not expressed any opinion on the merits of the case. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner has not been relieved and he is still continuing. If that be so, he shall not be relieved till consideration/decision of the representation.

With the aforesaid observations, this petition stands disposed of.

Consequently, M.W.P.1265/2003 and I.A.No.3870/2003 for urgent hearing also stand disposed of.
